

Before the State of South Carolina
Department of Insurance

In the matter of:

Christopher L. Childers

6 Springdale, Apt. E.
York, South Carolina 29745.

SCDOI File Number 2002-114078

Default Order Revoking
Resident Insurance Agent's License

This matter comes before me pursuant to a Letter of Allegation and Notice of Opportunity for Public Hearing served, as required within S.C. Code Ann. § 38-3-170 (2002), by the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance upon Christopher L. Childers by both certified mail, return receipt requested, and by regular mail on September 27, 2002.

By that letter, Christopher L. Childers was informed of his right to request a public hearing upon the allegations of impropriety contained within the letter against him. Further, he was warned that his failure to make a timely, written request would result in my summary revocation of his license to do business as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina. Despite that warning, Mr. Childers has failed to respond to the Department's letter. On March 12, 2003, therefore, counsel for the Department filed an Affidavit of Default, and the entire matter was submitted directly to me for my summary decision based solely on the record.

The letter alleged, and I now find as fact, that while licensed to do business as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina, Christopher Childers was convicted by the South Carolina Circuit Court of General Sessions, York County, of "Fraud", in violation of S.C. Code Section 38-55-540(1), by Judge Ray Long in York County, on June 28, 2002.

S.C. Code Ann. § 38-43-130 (2002) provides: "The director or his designee may revoke or suspend an agent's license after ten day's notice...when it appears that an agent has been convicted of a crime of moral involving moral turpitude...." The crime of Breach of Trust with Fraudulent Intent involves moral turpitude. In re Derrick, 301 S.C. 367, 392 S.E.2d 180 (1990).

In accordance with my findings of fact, and considering Christopher Childers's failure to avail himself of his opportunity to be heard, I now conclude, as a matter of law, that Christopher Childers was convicted of a crime of moral turpitude, and that his resident insurance agent license should be revoked.

This administrative disciplinary order is a public record subject to the disclosure requirements of the State of South Carolina's Freedom of Information Act, S.C. Code

Ann. §§ 30-40-10, et seq. (1991 and Supp. 2002). Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit or to deprive any person of any private right of action under the law. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit, in any manner, the criminal jurisdiction of any law enforcement or judicial officer. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit the statutory duty of the Director of Insurance, exercised either directly or through the Department of Insurance, to "report to the Attorney General or other appropriate law enforcement officials criminal violations of the law relative to the business of insurance or the provisions of this title which he considers necessary to report." S.C. Code Ann. § 38-3-110 (4) (2002).

It is therefore ordered that Christopher Childers's license to transact business as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina be, and is hereby, revoked, and that no license, issued through the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance is to be issued to him.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be transmitted to the National Association of Insurance Commissioners for distribution to its current member states and to each insurer for which Christopher Childers is currently licensed, through the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance, as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina.

This order takes effect upon the date of my signature below.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "E. N. Csiszar", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Ernst N. Csiszar
Director

11 March 2003, at
Columbia, South Carolina

Before the State of South Carolina
Department of Insurance

In the matter of:

Christopher L. Childers

6 Springdale, Apt. E.
York, South Carolina 29745

SCDOI File Number 2002-114078

Affidavit of Default

Personally appeared before me T. Douglas Concannon, who, being duly sworn, stated that at all times relevant to this Affidavit of Default he was an attorney representing the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance in this administrative action. He further stated the following:

The Department served notice on Christopher L. Childers at the address detailed above by a Letter of Allegation and Notice of Opportunity for a Public Hearing that the Department would request the Director of Insurance to summarily revoke her license to act as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina in thirty days. The Department served the Notice, pursuant to § 38-3-170 of the South Carolina Code, by "depositing it in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the last known address of the person and registered with the return receipt requested." That Notice further informed Mr. Childers of his opportunity, within thirty days, to request in writing a public hearing.

The United States Postal Service effected service of the Notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, and by regular mail, on or about September 27, 2002. Mr. Childers has made no request for a public hearing or any other response to the Notice. The time in which to do so has expired. He is now in default.

T. Douglas Concannon
Associate General Counsel
South Carolina Department of Insurance
Post Office Box 100105
Columbia, South Carolina 29202-3105
(803) 737-6132

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 17th day of March, 2003.

Steven R. DuBois
Notary Public for the State of South Carolina
My Commission Expires May 10, 2009